Senior Citizens party report

On arrival at the Church hall we were greeted by helpful young people with a welcome hot drink. We then down to tables resplendent with floral decorations and Christmas crackers. After donning our paper hats we were served with a super three course meal: soup, roast pork with vegetables followed by mince and apple pies with cream or fruit salad. We were waited on by smiling youngsters who plied us with more and more food. Entertainment then followed with younger members of the community playing various instruments. Singing was led by John Smith who gave a rendering of two comic songs, which caused a lot of merriment. Traditional carols reminded us of the familiar Christmas message of peace and goodwill. The evening ended with small gifts being handed out.

Well done everyone and many thanks to the organisers, helpers and entertainers.

Eileen Skelton.
