

Mikron

Once again the parish church was filled with laughter and applause as the Mikron Theatre Company performed what many believed to be their best play yet. 'Mrs. Brunel' did much more than simply report the achievements of the famous engineer. The cast, with wit and pathos, recreated his life and achievements and in the process provided excellent entertainment.

Doxey Youth Club

The founders of the Doxey youth club have done an excellent job in getting it started against all the odds and turning it into a great success. They now need more adult helpers to ensure further expansion and improvement. If you can spare a couple of hours on a Monday night and are willing to help then, for more information, ring Nigel on 07974 755 685

Stafford Film Festival

Many Doxey people were involved in the Stafford Film Festival, particularly the filming of the history of the park. The film will be shown for FREE at Stafford Gatehouse Theatre, 7.30pm on October 9th. For more information on the film festival please contact Stafford Borough Council. To see pictures of the filming of the park please go to:

Playgroup Jumpers

A big thank you to Donna and Vicki from Doxey Playgroup. These intrepid ladies were brave (or mad) enough to do a bungee jump in Doxey recently. It raised £600 towards the playgroups running costs.

A big thank you is also due to those who donated the money and those who went round collecting it
