Doxey reunion day

A runaway success, the day was the brainchild of Ray Spurway who once lived in Doxey. About 100 people attended, renewing old acquaintances and coming from as far afield as London.

Eileen Skelton's archive of local photographs was on show and Iain Simpson had organised a map with pictures of the area now occupied by the Sutton Housing Estate. Our thanks go to Chris Ball, who had the foresight to go round prior to demolition and make a photographic record of the area. All of these photographs and many more that people brought with them to lend and share, were the starting point of many reminiscences and some are to become additions to Eileen's archive.

There were many requests for a repeat performance. If one can be arranged at a future date then it is hoped that a photocopier can be made available to make sharing of photos easier.

All the fun of the Fair

Saturday December 1st

at 2pm

St. Thomas and St. Andrew's Church hall

The St Andrew's Fair will have stalls selling all kinds of goods that would make excellent Christmas presents. These goods will be made by people living in Doxey. Why?

Because over that weekend the church is hosting a Doxey Hobby Exhibition. That means that anyone living in Doxey who has a hobby is invited to come and display their hobby for others to see and enjoy.

Vandalism

No one wants to live in a community rife with vandalism and many people in Doxey, including the Neighbourhood Policing Team (N.P.T.), are working with the youngsters to help them find a more useful outlet for their energies. For those who persist in this anti-social behaviour it is important for their sakes as well as the people of Doxey, that we make it clear that we are not prepared to put up with it. Hard work of the N.P.T. following a recent attack on the the youth club, has resulted in the arrest of several suspects. These now await the decision of the crown prosecution service.
